Embodying Redemption Through Theatre

5-6pm

Brittney Harris presents a theatrical production that embodies creative resistance against oppressive gender stereotypes and domestic violence, Being B.A.D. is a piece about personal acceptance and redemption from the cycle of abuse. The 20-minute one-woman show explores the lengths in which one decides to take that power back after years of physical and emotional abuse at the hands of her family and romantic partner. This immersive presentation includes a performance of Being B.A.D. concluding with a dialogue detailing the artist's process and assessing audience impact.
