

Celebrating the Marine's 250th Birthday with the LifeLong Learning Society Tuesday – May 12, 2026

LifeLong Learning Society presents this Signatours trip as an opportunity for members to travel together

Join us for a memorable journey to Quantico, home of the National Museum of the Marine Corps. A lasting tribute to Marine's past, present, and future.

Located on a 135-acre site adjacent to Marine Corps Base Quantico, this striking 120,000-square-foot museum features a soaring design inspired by the iconic flag-raising at Iwo Jima. Inside, state-of-the-art interactive exhibits and irreplaceable artifacts immerse visitors in the sights, sounds, and stories of Marines in action.

As we celebrate the 250th Birthday of the Marines and America's 250th Birthday, the Museum is offering a special lecture series for groups. Our visit includes:

- Time to visit the museum's many galleries, including the new Global War on Terrorism wing.
- A catered buffet lunch featuring specialty hot sandwiches, salad, chips, and dessert.
- A classroom lecture on Marine Corps history, with an in-depth look at the story behind the raising of the American flag at Iwo Jima.
- A showing of the Museum's signature film, "We, the Marines", in the Medal of Honor Theatre. It follows the journey of Marines from boot camp through deployment and, ultimately, homecoming.

By the end of this experience, you'll gain a deeper appreciation for the honor, courage, and commitment of the U.S. Marine Corps.
