

US Army Band Holiday Concert! with Lifelong Learning Society Saturday – December 6, 2025

Lifelong Learning Society presents this SignaTours trip as an opportunity for members to travel together

Join us for a memorable holiday outing in our nation's capital as the acclaimed U.S. Army Band presents their Annual Holiday Concert at the iconic Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Constitution Hall.

This festive performance is the Army Band's most popular event of the year—an uplifting mix of world-class music, seasonal favorites, and joyful entertainment. It's one of the best holiday experiences Washington, D.C. has to offer! Founded in 1922 by General John J. Pershing, the U.S. Army Band has a long and distinguished history of musical excellence, performing at major national and international events for over a century. This year's concert features the 48-piece ensemble along with the Army Chorus, Army Chorale, and perhaps even a surprise visit from Santa Claus!

Before the concert, enjoy a plated lunch at The Point D.C., a stylish waterfront restaurant located where the Potomac and Anacostia Rivers meet near the Washington Navy Yard. With its contemporary design and sweeping views, The Point offers a relaxed yet elegant dining experience. Guests will select from a trio of entrées—roasted salmon, roasted chicken, or shrimp penne pasta—each thoughtfully prepared to showcase the flavors of the season.

Don't miss this delightful day of fine dining and spectacular holiday music—it's the perfect way to ring in the season!
