D. PROCEDURES

1. Roles and Leadership

   a. Decision Authority
The President shall make final decisions concerning response, recovery and communication in an emergency event. The President shall receive recommendations for response, recovery and communication in an emergency situation from the EPG via its Chair. In the absence of the President, the Vice President for Finance and Planning/CFO shall assume this role, to be followed by the Chief of Staff, the Vice President of Student Affairs, and the Provost.

b. Chair
The Vice President of Finance and Planning/CFO shall chair the Emergency Policy Group. The Chair of the EPG shall report and respond to the President concerning emergency planning, response, and recovery. In the absence of the Vice President for Finance and Planning/CFO, the Chief of Staff shall assume this role, to be followed by the Vice President of Student Affairs, and the Provost.

c. Emergency Response and Recovery
The Chair of the EPG shall direct the university’s response to and recovery from an emergency event. The Director of Emergency Management serves as staff to the EPG and Chair of the EMT.

2. Policy Development

In addition to managing emergency events, the EPG is tasked with developing and recommending major policy and procedural changes related to emergency planning. Any proposed policies or policy provisions shall be considered by the University Policy Group for submission to the President for approval.

3. Training Requirements

In order to effectively manage emergency events, EPG members shall be trained in appropriate systems and structures necessary for the successful coordination of response efforts. Necessary systems include the National Incident Management System (NIMS) and the Incident Command System (ICS). EMT members must also be trained in ICS.

The EPG is responsible for ensuring that the University meets federal, state and local requirements for preparedness by participating in practice exercises.

4. Continuity of Operations

The Director of Emergency Management is responsible for reviewing, updating, and maintaining the University’s Continuity of Operations (COOP) plan and the Crisis Emergency Management Plan (CEMP). The Director of Emergency Management shall provide the COOP and CEMP to the EPG annually for the purpose of review and comment.
